

Carol Seavor, president of Jefferson College of Health Sciences, Roanoke, announced her retirement. She joined the school for health-care professionals in 2002 after serving as associate dean of academic affairs for the College of Nursing at the University of Tennessee. Under Seavor, enrollment jumped 50 percent, and six degree programs were added. (The Roanoke Times)

